The Adam B. Slamas Golf Scholarship Fund was established by Adam’s family and many friends to honor his memory and celebrate his love of life.

Adam loved the outdoors, nature and staying active. Much like many young men, Adam participated in multiple sports. One became his clear favorite, golf. Countless hours were spent honing his skill-set at the shores of the Scranton Canoe Club on Lake Winola, PA. He split his time playing with both his grandparents and many encouraging members, quickly learning that everything breaks to the Lake! Growing stronger every year, Adam became the Junior Club Champion in 1999 and 2000. His good nature and strong golf game were soon recognized and Adam was recruited by Wyoming Seminary in Kingston, Pa., graduating in 2003.

He worked hard and played even harder. He easily made many friends and lived his life to the fullest. Balancing school and a full-time job, he was becoming a responsible and considerate adult. Earning a degree in business administration in 2008, Adam turned his attention with passion toward a career in golf. Already a seasoned employee, Adam became a professional and continued his springs and summers at Wyoming Valley Country Club in Hanover Twp. Adam's impact on the local golf community was ineffable. He treated everyone with respect and dignity.

He loved meeting new people and taking in the local color of an unfamiliar and new place. Music - Adam and his music. He loved hardcore punk rock. He loved live and loud music.

Words cannot be expressed on how much he will be missed. Adam and his legacy will live on inside us all. His life was well-lived. Adam made bad times good, made good times better, was loved, and now "he’s gone."
The Adam B. Slamas Golf Scholarship Fund provides a one-year nonrenewable scholarship to a young man or woman who is on his or her school’s golf team. One candidate will be selected to receive $1,000.00 payable over two semesters.
